BIG SIR MESSAGE Sir Dave Sparks (916)645-3034 davidsparks@att.net

Greetings Fellow SIRs;

It's May and I hope we all remembered to give a nice card and take that special woman out for a nice dinner on Mothers Day!! The BEC will be having a meeting this month to set requirements for all activities to open in July. Hopefully, this virus will have calmed down enough to resume some semblance of normalcy in our activities by then. As we all know, this and all other branches are administered by volunteers. Without them, SIRs would be non-existent. That being said, I'm still looking for a Little SIR and now I need a couple to be contact callers for the luncheons. If you are in a volunteering mood, give me a call.

Per State SIR requirements, due to our insurance carriers dropping coverage for COVID-19 related claims, all luncheon attendees must read, printout and sign the waiver form attached to this news letter. The signed form must be presented at the luncheon. Feel free to scream obscenities at your computer after reading the last few lines. I did. That's all for now. Keeping my fingers crossed in hopes of better times.

Regards Dave Sparks

FLAG DAY -----JUNE-14TH

The church held a "Marriage Seminar" and the Priest asked Luigi, as his 50th wedding anniversary approached, to share some insight into how he managed to stay married to the same woman all these years. Luigi replied to his audience, "Well, I tried to treat her well and spend money on her. But the best thing I did was take her to Italy for our 20th anniversary."

The Priest said "Luigi, you are an inspiration to all husbands here today. Please tell the audience what you plan for your wife for your 50th anniversary." Luigi proudly replied "I'm gonna go and get her."

Lincoln, a young man, wanted to get his beautiful blonde wife, Lucy something nice for their fifth wedding anniversary. So, he decides to buy her a cell phone. She is all excited, she loves her phone and he explains all the features on the phone.

The next day, Lucy goes shopping. Her phone rings and its Lincoln: "Hi honey", he says "how do you like your new phone?"

And she replies: "I just love it, it's so small and your voice is clear as a bell but there's one thing I don't understand though". "What's that, baby?" asks the husband.

"How did you know I was at Wal Mart?" asked Lucy.

A middle aged woman had a heart attack and was taken to the hospital. While on the operating table, she had a near death experience.

Seeing God, she asked, "Is my time up?" God said, "No, you have another 43 years, 2 months and 8 days to live." Upon recovery, the woman decided to stay in the hospital and have a face lift, liposuction and tummy tuck. Since she had so much more time to live, she figured she might as well look even nicer.

After her last operation, she was released from the hospital. While crossing the street on her way home, she was hit and killed by an ambulance. Arriving in front of God, she demanded, "I thought you said I had another 40 plus years? Why didn't you pull me out of the path of the ambulance!?"

God replied, "My child, I am sorry, I didn't even recognize you!"

Diner Counter Confusion

Nelson Love sat at the diner counter and watched the waitress refill his coffee cup. The waitress unscrewed the lid on the saltshaker and the maple syrup dispenser. She turned from the counter to get the salt container and syrup container to refill them when Love reached for the saltshaker.

She stood there watching in disbelief when he poured the salt into his cup of coffee. Love stirred the coffee with a spoon and then reached for the maple syrup dispenser grabbing it by the handle.

Before the waitress could stop him, Love had poured it into the coffee cup.

"What on earth?" One of the wait staff whispered beside her. "Did Nelson Love just put salt and pancake syrup in his coffee?"

"He sure did!"

"Why did he do that?"

" 'Cause Love is blind."

Print this page, fill it out and bring it to the luncheon.
