The July clean games for Thursday and Friday: Lorraine Diaz, Dave Gluck, Chuck Waller (3)

Both Thursday and Friday leagues got off to a great start with a total of 53 bowlers hitting the lanes. After missing the January- June session, we would like to welcome back John Bernat and Fred Thompson. It looks like the extended time off really benefited both as they returned with a vengeance. John led the B group with a very nice 217 and a 544 Series. That's 100 pins above his regular series average. Fred then led the C group with a 194 game and a 491 series. That's 88 pins over his series average. Welcome back and great shooting guys. After that I'm thinking about a long vacation too. Some other highlights were Dave Gluck 258 and 698 series, Joe Voltattorni 246, Steve Curry 255, Lamonte Lovering 243, Roger Harrison 244. All very strong performances.

We would also like to welcome a new bowler, Paul Harrison , to our Friday league. Paul is the brother of long-time member Roger Harrison and has joined team 3 "Awesum Trio". Good luck Paul, good bowling , and have fun.

Tournaments: We took eight bowlers to Concord on July 24,2023 with three finishing in the money. In Division 1 Doubles, Lamonte Lovering and Doug Moffitt, took second. In Division 2 Singles, Chuck Waller finished first and in Division 2 All Events Chuck tied for first. Nice going guys. August 7 and 8, 2023 we have eight bowlers attending a big Sirs tournament in Reno. Good luck to all our branch 142 bowlers and guests.

USBC CARDS: Both Thursday and Friday leagues are USBC sanctioned . The 2023-2024 fees are due by the end of August. The senior rate will be $22.00 if paid through Bel Mateo or $27.00 if paid on line. If you have paid through another association you will need to pay $10.00 to the Peninsula USBC association. Chuck will be contacting everyone throughout August to collect fees and explain options.

Hope you all have great bowling in August.
