ITINERARY

DAY 1: SAN FRANCISCO PIER

Transfer to the San Francisco Cruise Terminal to begin your cruise through the Panama Canal. Depart at 4PM

DAY 2: AT SEA

DAY 3: AT SEA

DAY 4: AT SEA

DAY 5: PUERTO VALLARTA, MEXICO

Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, masterfully plays the part of a remote tropical getaway, even as it grows into a larger city that's connected to the outside world by multinational chain stores and a steady stream of jets and cruise ships. Whitewashed walls and terra-cotta-tiled roofs are nestled along Banderas Bay, with the ornate crown of the Church of Our Lady of Guadalupe serving as a focal point. The lush, green foothills of the Sierra Madre Mountains to the east make for a beautiful and dramatic backdrop. Artists, architects, writers and chefs flourish in this rarified climate of tropical creativity. 8AM to 5PM

DAY 7: AT SEA

DAY 8: PUERTO QUETZAL, GUATEMALA

Guatemala is located in the northern-most part of Central America and is one of the largest countries in this region. It boasts 37 volcanoes, a rich Mayan heritage, Lake Atitlan, and one of the best-preserved colonial cities in Antigua. Today Guatemala is a thriving democracy with many varying landscapes, activities and historical venues waiting to be discovered. 7AM to 6PM

DAY 10: PUNTARENAS, COSTA RICA

Puntarenas, Costa Rica, a small Pacific-coast city about 50 mi/80 km west of San Jose, is making a comeback as a port and resort town. Built at the tip of a long, narrow peninsula, Puntarenas (Spanish for "sandy point") is a good base from which to visit nearby national parks or the towns of Quepos or Jaco because of its central location on the west coast. 7AM to 7PM

DAY 11: AT SEA

DAY 12: FUERTE AMADOR, PANAMA (FOR PANAMA CITY)

Fuerte Amador, situated at the Pacific entrance to the Panama Canal, is a man-made peninsula extending out into the Pacific Ocean. The one-mile causeway was created by connecting four small islands with rocks excavated from the Panama Canal. There are several shops, restaurants, and other specialty stores centered around a large marina that serves as a tender dock. The causeway also affords a panoramic view of Panama City's impressive skyline and serves as the home for the Smithsonian Institute of Tropical Research. 7AM to 6PM

DAY 13: PANAMA CANAL FULL TRANSIT HISTORIC LOCKS

It takes approximately eight hours to navigate the 50-mile waterway linking the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, allowing you to experience firsthand one of the engineering marvels of the 20th century. Completed in 1914, the canal marks the culmination of a dream born in 1513, when Balboa became the first European to cross the Isthmus of Panama and sight the Pacific. In 1880 Ferdinand de Lesseps and the French Canal company, builders of the Suez Canal, began construction in Panama, only to be defeated by disease, staggering cost overruns, and massive engineering problems. The French sold their claim and properties to the United States for $40 million, a staggering loss of $247 million on their investment. The United States began construction in 1904, completing the project in 10 years at a cost of $387 million. Building the canal meant solving three problems: engineering, sanitation, and organization. The project, for example, required carving a channel through the Continental Divide and creating the then-largest man-made lake ever built, as well as defeating yellow fever and other tropical maladies. The United States oversaw the operation of the Panama Canal until December 31, 1999, when the Republic of Panama assumed responsibility for the canal's administration. The Panamanian government controls the canal through the Panama Canal Authority, an independent government agency created for the purpose of managing the canal. PLEASE NOTE: Shore excursions will not be offered as the ship spends the majority of the day transiting the canal and its three sets of locks. 6AM to 4:30PM

DAY 14: CARTAGENA, COLUMBIA

This modern and bustling city, seaport and commercial center still boasts much of its original Spanish colonial architecture. Explore this beautiful and historic city's walled Old Town. Its fortress walls, quaint, narrow streets and balconied houses are all vivid reminders of its former colonialists. The city's numerous monasteries, plazas and noble mansions are significant links to this region's grand past. 9AM to 4PM

DAY 16: AT SEA

DAY 17: FT. LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

Arrive in Ft. Lauderdale this morning. Clear customs and transfer to the airport for your flight home. We hope you will be filled with memories of your wonderful Panama Canal cruise. Arrive Ft. Lauderdale 7 AM
