Program

The Economics of the Pandemic

Jon Haveman, Executive Director of NEED (National Economic Education Delegation) will be our speaker on August 12. His timely topic is ""The Economics of the Pandemic" Don't miss it !

OUR BIG SIR LES YEFFA SEZ:

SIRS, first let me thank the 22 of you that participated in our Zoom meeting last month. We found this was a good way to have a SIRS meeting, keep in touch with our members and see one another face to face.

And thanks to Sir Jim Healey for getting speaker for the meeting. If you missed it, our own Sir Mike Wallace told us what it takes to be an author of fiction and how to publish your own work thanks to Amazon. A very interesting program.

Unfortunately, with the continuing of the covid 19 we are again unable to have a meeting in person. But not to fret, we will have a zoom meeting again.

Sir Jim has promised another speaker and we intend to induct a new member.

This month your Big Sir and Little Sir will be attending the State Annual meeting, again by Zoom. This is a different world we are living in. But our meetings continue and our organization continues to move forward.

According to the directions given us, we are to hold our election of officers this month. My thanks to our nominating committee of Past Big Sirs Tom Duncanson and Joe Mingione and Little Sir Steve Tedesco we have a full slate of officers for next year. The slate is published in this newsletter. There will be nominations from the floor should anyone else be interested in taking an office.

Please join us for our regular SIRS meeting on Wednesday August 12th at 12:00. Bring your own lunch. The information to join the meeting is in this newsletter.

Please stay safe and stay well.
