Program

Income Inequality In the USA

Our speaker for September 9th is Volodymyr Lugouskyy, the Director of Graduate Studies at Indiana University. He's a colleague of Jon Haveman, our August speaker and he'll tackle the subject of Income Inequality in the USA. Join us on zoom at noon.

OUR BIG SIR LES YEFFA SEZ:

SIRS, another month gone by and still no meeting. I hope that all of you are safe and in your homes. It has been bad enough with the virus but to have the fires on top of that.

Unfortunately we still can't have a meeting in person BUT we will have a virtual meeting via Zoom. Please see the link to join the meeting.

One thing that our State SIR organization is worried about is that when we do start having meeting in person again, our members will have lost the contact and desire to meet in person. WE DON'T WANT THAT TO HAPPEN in our Branch. If any of you feel isolated or need assistance in any way, please let me know. We can get you the assistance.

Even though we can't meet in person doesn't mean that we can't meet. Do you know friends or neighbors who might be interested in joining SIRS. Invite them to our Zoom meetings. Get them interested now and they will want to become active once we are back where we can meet in person.

In the meantime, Wear your mask, stay well and stay happy.

PS The State SIR organization is looking for a Grant Writer. The grant would be to fund a marketing effort for SIR. If any of our members are interested, please contact me at 831-475-9481
