What happens to recycling after it's collected?

The recycling driver dumps the recyclable waste from your recycling cart or bin into the truck. Then it is taken to a material recovery facility, also known as a MRF, where it is sorted

Accepted Compost Materials

Food Scraps

Non-Recyclable Paper

Look for BPI certified compostable paper products. These items are accepted in Denver's green compost carts.

Yard Debris

What happens to food waste after it's collected?

Composting is a recycling method for organic waste materials. As part of our commitment to the planet, our organic waste disposal program will help your business manage organic materials. This helps divert a portion of your waste from landfills, helping to maintain a healthy environment.

Hazardous Waste:

Items NEVER collected in the 3 commercial waste stream.
