Bulletin No.12

BIG SIR JERRY MUSING

I'm ready to go fishing!

Moving to Del Webb's Sun City in Lincoln Hills, California, near Roseville where my daughter and three adult grandkids live. It's a 55+ community of 6,800 homes. It's built around two 18-hole golf courses and has over 70 groups of various interests (including Pickleball). I expect we will be settled in there in a couple of months.

The local SIRs Branch 98 of Rocklin has about 250 members. I will join them.

If you have an interest in checking out the area, please call me. I'll be happy to offer you our thoughts.

I thoroughly enjoyed being Big Sir this year. We gained 7 more members and added a couple of great activities, including Couples Wine Tasting.

And I know that you will have a great 2024 with your new Big Sir Rob Ingebretson and Little Sir Rob Perrill. They have lots of plans to bring you the best fellowship ever. Be sure to look for small opportunities to help out and get involved.

See you at the Christmas party!

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

Our annual Christmas Luncheon will take place on December 20th. For an update see page 9.

Our regular luncheon will resume on Wednesday January 17th, 2024.

2024 Membership Dues

At our November BEC meeting, after reviewing our projected income and expenditures it was decided to keep the annual membership dues at $50/yr. There will be more information on how and when to pay the dues in the January edition of the Pathfinder.

Both addresses look similar but not the same.

Branch 59

Meets at Fremont Elks
38991 Farwell Drive,
Fremont CA on the 3rd
Wednesday of each month
10:00 AM
Executive Board Meeting
11AM Social Hour
12 Noon Lunch

The meeting was called to order by Big Sir Jerry Halligan at 10:00am. All BEC members were present except James Vermazen and Rick Henry.

The October 18 meeting minutes were approved as presented. The Schedule of Branch Operations suggests our 2024 BEC officers be installed during our November or December meeting. We agreed this will be done during our January meeting instead.

Larry Lardie reported the balance of our account was $6,781.58 on Nov 15. This amount is consistent with SIR State recommendation of account balance to membership ratio. Projecting our budget in 2024 being very similar to our 2023 budget, Larry made the motion that our 2024 annual dues remain at $50. The motion was approved by the BCE. Larry spoke with James Vermazen regarding his position as assistant treasurer. James has been dealing with several health issues over the last few months and has not been able to attend meetings. He will step down from this position next year. James served as assistant treasurer since 2021. We appreciate his service and wish him a speedy recovery. Larry also spoke with Mark Silvera, who has agreed to take the position of assistant treasurer in 2024. The BEC approved Mark as assistant treasurer in 2024. Larry and Mark plan to co-chair the treasurer position.

Membership; We expect two first time guests today. We also expect two new members at today's luncheon; Darrell Sandeford and John Burnett. The BEC approved their membership.

Rob Ingebretson (Ingy); As Big Sir next year, Ingy will relinquish the tasks relating to membership to other Sir members. This is not a one-person job and he anticipates several members to come forward and help with this critical part of our organization.

Holiday Party planning; Ingy has had great help from Rob Perill and Bill Bauhofer organizing this annual event. 50 tickets were sold last month and we hope another 50 will be sold today. We are urging members to solicit prizes from their favorite business to donate to the event. It is important that Rob be told about all donated prizes well before the luncheon so he can be prepared on the day of the event.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:46am

Dave Nelsen, Secretary

A Big Hello to our New Members

Sir John Burnett

Sir Darrell Sandeford

Sir Sammy Lum Birthday Chairman

You may have noticed that our birthday procedure has changed. If it is your birthday month you are to pick up a lei in the box located next to the gentleman that gives you your badge when you enter. You are to wear it during the luncheon and you may sit anywhere you want as there will no longer be a birthday table. Some time during the luncheon you will be given the opportunity to say your name and how old you are. After all the birthdays have been announced there will be a drawing for a bottle of wine given to one of the birthday members present. We ask that when you leave the luncheon that you please return your lei to the same box where you picked it up.

POKER

The "Dealer's Lunch Bunch" meets for Poker every month on the Monday immediately following our monthly luncheon. We currently have about 10 members who routinely attend games. We have a seven-seat table, so space is limited to the first seven players who reserve. But don't let that stop you from joining our group! We have had up to 10 players (lots of common card games) since the group started, and IF we consistently get more than 10 reservations, we will open a second table.

The buy-in is $10, with dime-quarter-half dollar chips, so it is within everyone's means. If you have a desire to play, please contact Sir Larry Jett (larrywjett@gmail.com), or Sir Bob Marshall (hdog48@gmail.com).

BOCCE BALL

We have free use of the new court at the beautiful Warm Springs Age Well Center on Fridays. Meet up is every Friday at 10:00 a.m. at 47111 Mission Falls Ct. (near Warm Springs Blvd. and Warren Ave). This will be a co-ed activity; everyone is welcome. Bocce Ball is easy to learn and very fun to play. For more

BOWLING

We have plenty of room for bowlers to join us on Mondays (Earl Anthony Bowl-Dublin) beginning at 11:00 am. Arrive at least 15 minutes early for lane assignments and practice. Cost is $15 per week including a weekly prize pot. For more information contact Miguel Ferras at MIGUELFERRAS@MSN.COM

GOLF

Golf is in full swing with regular play at Spring Valley in Milpitas every Tuesday around 9:00 am. We usually get three tee times on a first-come-first-served basis. Pairings are changed regularly to ensure everyone plays with everybody. Open to all abilities!

We will soon also open up Thursday for those interested, probably at Redwood Canyon in Castro Valley.

THE BRANCH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (BEC)

Do you even know what it is? Well it is a bunch of members, like you, that keep our branch operating. They would love to have you come and watch and listen to one of their meetings. Their meetings start at 10:00 am near the bar at our Elk's Lodge and finish at 11:00 am. right before our social hour. Although you cannot participate in the voting, your opinion is welcomed. Attending one of their meetings might spark an interest in you to volunteer and become more of an active member or learn how to become part of the BEC.

COUPLES WINE TASTING

I am happy to report that our SIRs wine tasters had a great event at Dante Robere Vineyards on October 13th. We had 29 in attendance, which was the biggest turnout of the year. Thanks to all who attended. The wine, socializing, snacking and weather were all outstanding. As I had previously mentioned, this was our last wine tasting event of 2023. So now I am looking forward 2024. I'll be e-mailing a short survey to the group. I'll use the responses to help plan our 2024 events.

Email me at fmtlangs@pacbell.net or call or text me at 510-290-6007.

Suggestions are welcome for future events.

Thanks,

Andy Lang -Couples Wine Tasting Activity Honcho

We four walked in the cold. Mission Peak looked cold across Lake Elizabeth, as cold as we were. The photo of the other three looks like their teeth were chattering. No chattering teeth, but it was still pretty cold.

Creating a lithium-ion battery for the future

Unique manganese-based material may pave the way for cheaper, more powerful Li-ion batteries

October 5, 2023 by Marni Ellery

Lithium-ion (Li-ion) batteries power everything from electric vehicles (EVs) to personal devices like cell phones, tablets and laptops, but nickel and cobalt — minerals needed to manufacture them — cannot be mined fast enough to scale with consumer demand. Now, researchers have discovered a way to use another, more plentiful mineral to create inexpensive, high-performance Li-ion batteries.

As reported today in the journal Nature Energy, a team of researchers demonstrated a new method for using manganese to create cathode materials for Li-ion batteries. The unique nanostructure of these synthesized manganese-based materials delivers the high stability and high energy density that Li-ion batteries require while offering industry a viable alternative to nickel and cobalt.

“Designing high-capacity manganese-based cathode materials is critical to addressing the resource challenges associated with Li-ion batteries,” said principal investigator Gerbrand Ceder, professor of materials science engineering at UC Berkeley and faculty senior scientist at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. “These manganese-based cathode materials can significantly lower the cost of Li-ion batteries and reduce our reliance on scarce metal resources.”

Recognizing that demand for these batteries is growing, researchers have been exploring ways to produce lithium battery cathodes using abundant and inexpensive transition metals, such as titanium, iron and manganese. Manganese has shown the most promise, but earlier implementations of manganese-based materials exhibited capacity loss, a result of the metal's crystal structure becoming unstable during charging and discharging of the battery.

“The manganese-based materials used in early batteries for EVs suffered from low energy density and stability problems,” said lead author Zijian Cai (Ph.D.'22 MSE), a postdoctoral researcher in Ceder's lab. “We addressed the underlying cause of these issues by creating a new manganese-based nanostructure called δ .”

According to Cai, researchers synthesized these cathode materials to have crystal structures resembling rock salt. “They are crystalline, but all the metals [lithium, manganese, titanium] are disordered in them,” he said. “Upon cycling, the metals slowly and partially order to form nanoscale domains. This partially disordered structure actually improves the cycle life stability of this material.”

Tests of the resulting manganese-based materials proved that they possessed both high cycling stability and high energy density.

Based on these findings, manganese may offer the Li-ion industry the lifeline it needs in the coming decades. “Their performance, combined with the low cost of manganese- and titanium-based oxide precursors, makes these novel manganese-based materials an excellent candidate for meeting future terawatt demands,” said Cai.

More to Niles Than Main Street

OK, it's called Niles Boulevard, but the point is that other than the old storefronts and quaint bungalows that one usually photographs, there is more to see for folks who want to take a walk.

Today (Sept 6th) it was mostly Alameda Creek and sights along the way to the rubber dam and back. Take the shark mailbox tree for example. We stopped and stared at the myriad of objects and items attached to it. On a day like today, cool and sunny, the walk along the Creek played with our senses of sight and sound. Pretty quiet most of the time except for our own talking, we heard and sighted the BART train near the dam. Other walkers and riders greeted us.

Then there was Fiona. Dave and Linda Nelson's Fiona, long on stamina and short of leg, would stop and sniff and be left behind, only to suddenly realize the distance she needed to catch up. "Fi" called Linda, and Fiona bolted toward the walkers, at times with all four feet off the ground as she sped toward us.

A fun morning it was. Some of us stopped for coffee afterwards. — Bruce Roberts

Rob's Rock at Don Edwards

As a group we walkers decided independently that today was a cool, yes, cool day. Nobody wore short sleeves. Fall morning views greeted us after we climbed the Visitor Center stairs, about 50 of them (I lost count). We remarked at the Bay the sloughs, the dried grasses, and near the horizon we spied the San Mateo Bridge and maybe San Francisco — pretty clear day.

Rob Perrill found a rock he wanted to take home and asked us to help him lift it. We assured him we could. Let's see, 2 by 3 FEET! Rob decided we could leave it after all.

Not too many birds today except for a wedge of egrets near the entrance of the preserve. Oh, and some Northerners shovellers out on the Bay. Bright reflections off the sloughs and deep shadows on the land made for a joyful morning. Oh, and the fragrance of Wild fennel (licorice) capped off the morning walk. — Bruce Roberts

The Wednesday Walkers tackled Niles on November 22, 2023. Actually our trek started at the Niles Park and we forged our way eventually out to the rubber dam on Alameda Creek and the fish ladder. Cool but not frosty, the brisk air took us around some of the ponds (some still over their banks even after some dry months) out to the Creek with water backed up from the dam. With time to talk, and with seven of us there, we had wide-ranging conversations. And we met some really nice folks on our walk and even stopped for a conversation. A proffered SIR card may produce a new member in the future. SIRs, see the photos and wish you had joined us!

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON UPDATE

For those that signed up for the Christmas Luncheon at our October and November meetings here is an update. No further sign ups can be accepted at this time as it is a complete sell out with over 120 people coming.

As you enter you will be put in the Christmas spirit by the decorations, especially the table centerpieces made by Gail Blalock and her helpers. I hope many of you were successful in obtaining a door prize from our wonderful community merchants. I have already received several prizes from our members. If you have a prize you have obtained you can bring it to me during our social hour so I can display it. I will be doing this between 11:00 – 11:30 am. Dave Badilla will be playing his guitar for your dancing and listening pleasure during our social hour and during lunch.

When you enter we will give you your name tag. Besides your name there will be a number which designates the table you have been assigned, as well as a colored dot that tells our servers the entrée you have chosen. RED = Tri-tip Roast, BLUE = Salmon, YELLOW = Chicken Cordon Bleu, and GREEN = Eggplant Parmesan. As you enter we will also be selling door prize tickets at 6 for $5.00, 13 for $10.00, and 30 for $20.00. The door prize drawing will take place after our luncheon and our entertainment by THE JAMES LOGAN HIGH SCHOOL JAZZ CHOIR.

See you there on Wednesday, December 20th. Social hour is from 11:00 am to Noon followed by lunch. Dress will be resort casual.
