Elmer Marymee Gives Farm Desertion Causes

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Marymee of the Bladen community were among those who testified before the congressional committee at the Hastings hearing Monday afternoon. Mr. Marymee reported to the committee that he and his wife gave testimony to the committee.

Tells of Youths' Trek From Farm

By Milton Besser
HASTINGS — (AP) — A dryland farmer from near Bladen appeared yesterday before the house committee investigating national defense migration to dramatize the trek of rural young men and women to defense jobs in big cities.
He was Elmer Marymee, 49, who with his wife has farmed 160 acres which he rented since 1920.

REAL. FAIR. ACCURATE.

TESTIMONY OF MR. AND MRS. ELMER MARYMEE, BLADEN NEBR.

Congressman Arnold: "How many children do you have?"

Mr. Marymee: "Six. Four at home. The oldest is 21, teaching school and starved his way through college, and the other boy is working in a plant in Denver..."

Mr. Arnold: "Do you intend to keep your other boys on the farm?"

Mr. Marymee: "No sir. If they can locate a job, I will let them go."
