BIG SIR Al Knight — 725-6506

We are going to have our yearly Ladies Day Picnic next month on June 9, 1997. That is our regular scheduled meeting day, except we will be at High Hill Ranch. Last year, when I was collecting the money for our picnic, you would be surprised at the number of people who told me they did not know when the picnic was scheduled. I'm sure Little Sir Hal Anderson will have more to tell you about the picnic. Hope to see all of our members there.

We have been having excellent attendance, and several new members have been sworn in to our Branch. Keep up the recruiting, you are doing a good job.

LITTLE SIR Hal Anderson — 677-7709

Our speaker this month is Lee Chauvet, an active member of STAR. Due to change of Sheriffs in our county I don't know how the new Sheriff wants to reorganize the STAR program. Hopefully Lee can bring us up to date and also share some of the pluses and negatives of STAR.

Birthday boys this month are: John Crawford, Paul Flesher, Bob Harris, Joe Joyce, Joe Morin, Hal Smith, Larry Weller and Dan White. ¹ ² ³ ⁴ ⁵ ⁶

MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN Jim January — 933-3173

The following members were dropped in April: #21 Harold Smith, #43 Joseph Laber, #103 John Treghea, #128 Paul Fletcher, #135 Paul Blais.

Our total membership remains at 130 with 7 on the waiting list. A reminder - If you are planning an extended trip, resulting in three or more consecutively missed meetings, please advise our Attendance Chairman. Also, if illness prevents your attendance, please try and notify the chairman.

GOLF CHAIRMAN Allan Weinstock — 677-9013

April started with a bang. El Dorado Hills golf course, good weather, course in excellent condition and the money winners were Angelo Varriale, Harlan Dobyns and Allen Weinstock. Keep up the good work.

Rancho Cordova the next stop on the tour was won by the following winners: Jim January, Lon Titsworth and Cecil Shelley.

We finally went to play at Lighthouse golf course, had a good turn-out of golfers and the money players came into the money. Ray Cormier, Lon Titsworth and Joe Joyce - Congratulations to you all.

Mather golf course as usual, had a large contingent of golfers. The winners were Bob Murphy, Lon Titsworth and Jim January. (P.S. Give someone else a chance to win.)

Dry Creek golf course, the next stop on the Sirs 95 Tour had a nice turn-out, weather and course perfect. Tom Trafzer, Cecil Shelley, Ray Cormier and Robert Eyrich were "the pros" and won all the money. Good luck.

AREA 19 GOLF NEWS Harry Shirley

The first tournament of 1997 was held at Dry Creek golf club on April 24. The winner and new Area 19 Low Net Champion is Virgil Prine of Branch 95! We had a beautiful day for golf and everybody enjoyed the competition and the comradeship. Other winners follow: Low Net - 2nd Ray Cormier, 3rd Dana Badley, 4th Jack Harris. All low net winners were from Branch 95!! Best Ball - 1st Virgil Prine #95 and Jack Harris #95, 2nd Ray Cormier #95 and John Terisi #137, 3rd Lon Titsworth #95 and Jim Gallier #95, 4th Bill Green #29 and George Almassey #29. Closest to Pin - 1st Ray Cormier #95 and 2nd J.C. Miller #95.

Our next tournament will be held at Castle Oaks golf club on June 10. It is the Poppy Hills Area qualifying tournament for Sirs NCGA members but any Sirs member with an NCGA index may play. Fliers are now available for applicants. Fliers for the Carson City Tournament to be played in September are also available.
