BIG SIR Hal Anderson — 677-7709

We are very sorry to lose George Calvert to the hinterlands but a change of climate hopefully will solve some medical problems. At any rate we wish the Calverts God's speed.

I understand that Chef Pingree out did himself again and you guys did the meal justice.

LITTLE SIR George Calvert — 672-1872

This month's speaker will be Kacy Grommesh of the Green Valley Mortuary.

There will be two birthday drawings this month, one for April and one for May.

April birthdays are: Russ Harris, Bob Jessup, Bob Livesay, Clint Mason, Bob Moen, Bob Murphy, Bob Natoli, Ross Walters and Don Weeks.

May birthdays are: John Crawford, Paul Flescher, Bob Harris, Joe Joyce, Joe Morin, Harold Smith, Larry Weller and Dan White.

GOLF CHAIRMAN Lon Titsworth — 933-0158

I need input on the following. No. 1 - In lieu of the picnic and golf item drawings we have been having I am promoting the idea of having a breakfast and golf tournament. My problem lies in finding a location where we can have both breakfast and tournament. Help me out! No. 2 - I have been approached by another SIR branch with the suggestion of inter-branch competition and a perpetual trophy. Can I have some serious input on this?

Dry Creek, March 30 was great. Twenty-one would be golfers. Jack Harris was first place, Lon Titsworth took second place, John Griffin came in third and Mr. Griffin scooped up the sleeve of balls for closest to the pin. El Dorado Hills, April 6 was soggy but playable. Robert Eyrich was first, Carl Williams second and James January took third place. Bob Eyrich won the sleeve of balls (keep your eye on this guy; he is becoming a threat on every course). Diamond Oaks, April 8 had another nice turnout. Lon Titsworth first, Carl Williams second, Earl Smith took third place and Lon (what's his name) the sleeve of balls. At Lighthouse on April 16 Carl Williams took first place, Robert Eyrich second and Gardner Curtright third place. Mr. Curtright won the sleeve of balls. Cordova, April 17 a reasonable turnout considering all the golf this week. Robert (comeback) Eyrich first place, Erv Sundsted second place, Kip (sneaky) Klopp third place. Mr. Ken (happy return) Hepler won the sleeve of balls. Castle Oaks on April 23, a terrific bunch of guys. Robert (what did I tell you) Eyrich first place, Gerald Nester second place, Ray Cormier third place and Robert Murphy fourth place. George Brown took the sleeve of balls for closest to pin at hole sixteen.
