BIG SIR Tom Gamble 677-7764

Your Big Sir is away, joining family celebrating my mother's 90th birthday!! Little Sir Greg Rhine will be standing in for me. Also, Past Big Sir Ron Waisner will be celebrating his mother's 90th birthday in August!! Way to go, Moms!

As our Ladies Day Picnic Chairman, Greg organized a very successful outing last month. This was Flag Day and the red, white and blue table coverings were very appropriate and festive. We had a record turnout this year and the day was perfect for getting together with our ladies, enjoying a good meal, socializing and listening to some wonderful music performed by the Earl Smith combo. Earl does not charge our club for his group; just a good meal. We thank him much!! It was good to see so many new members in attendance. If you haven't been to this event, I encourage you to enter it on your calendar for next year; this is a very enjoyable event. Thanks Greg for a great picnic, and special thanks to Harry Shirley and his crew for providing the beverage service.

I didn't have great success selling River Cats tickets at recent meetings, but we did have ten members and wives attend a game in June. Spending a warm summer evening at Raley's Field, eating hot dogs, drinking cold beverages and watching the River Cats play was great!

Blondie Jokes

A blonde pushes her BMW into a gas station. She tells the mechanic it died. After he works on it for a few minutes, it is idling smoothly. She asks, "What's the story?" He replies, "Just crap in the carburetor." She asks, "How often do I have to do that?"

This blonde lady is out for a walk. She comes to a river and sees another blonde lady on the opposite bank. "Yoo-hoo" she shouts, "How do I get to the other side?" The second blonde looks up the river and then down the river and shouts back, "You ARE on the other side."

A police officer stops a blonde for speeding and asks her very nicely if he could see her license. She replied in a huff, "I wish you guys would get your act together. Just yesterday you take away my license and then today you expect me to show it to you."

LITTLE SIR Greg Rhine 916-774-6574

Wow, Wow, Wow!! What a picnic it was; attended by 145 of you, your wives and friends. Thanks so much for making the day so enjoyable, and thanks so much for all those who helped for without them this day would not have been possible. We had people who donated their time to help cover tables, sell drink and raffle tickets, ladies who provided desserts and how about those fellows in charge of the beverages, they were really great!

In Flight Announcements

On landing the stewardess said, "Please be sure to take all of your belongings. If you're going to leave anything, please make sure it's something we'd like to have."

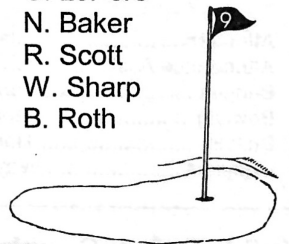

Thank you for flying Delta Business Express. We hope you enjoyed giving us the business as much as we enjoyed taking you for a ride.

Overheard on an American Airlines flight into Amarillo, Texas, on a particularly windy and bumpy day. During the final approach the captain was really having to fight it. After an extremely hard landing, the flight attendant said, "Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to Amarillo. Please remain in your seats with your seat belts fastened while the captain taxis what's left of our airplane to the gate."
