BIG SIR MESSAGE

Hello SIR 99 Members, and 🎉 Happy New Year!!! 🥳
This past year has been a whole lot of fun.
Just to reminisce about all the stuff we did. Brings a smile.

And then I missed the last big event - 'The Christmas Party'.

I know you all enjoyed it with all the smiles on your faces in the pictures. That was a Christmas gift to you and your significant others from your SIR 99.

Get prepared for Lots of new fun challenges that are in store for you this next year. They are still in the planning stages as I write this letter. Remember, if you are so inclined...

- Join us at our BEC meetings at 10:00am just before the Luncheons.
- Or get involved and participate with the golf committee.
- Volunteer your needed services for many of SIR 99 responsibilities. Treasurer, Secretary, and many more positions needed to fill.

The next SIR 99 event to participate in is the recruitment table at the McBride Senior Center on January 19, 2024. This is to advertise SIR 99 to have more new members come and join the fun.

Be sure to read all your SIR 99 newsletter to get updates on all upcoming events for your calendar.

I'll see you next year at the Luncheon on January 18, 2024

From your BIG SIR Kenny OConnell

JANUARY 2024 GOLF NEWS

The Old Year is behind us and the New Year out in front. Health is going to be a factor as it is expected to be colder this winter.

A new manual and schedule will be coming soon. Tim has to complete his calls for new courses and a new idea for golf play is coming in the near future. "THREE CLUBS AND A PUTTER. Course play will be any three clubs and one putter. Should be huge challenge for all of us.

Mr. Powell is purging golfers who have not updated their NCGA dues. What this means is the golf club will lose a few players. Without NCGA number you will not be able to participate in any portion of tournament play and not be able to be a member of the golf committee. Yes, we will keep chip and putt for those who need it. May the new year be a good one to all.
